

WELCOME TO ENGLISH 11 & 12

DR. NATASHIA J. HILL: ROOM # 402

WELCOME
BRUINS!!!

DR. HILL (YOUR TEACHER OF RECORD)

- This is my 18th year of teaching English (my 2nd year at Bethel)
- I am a graduate of the University of Michigan—Ann Arbor with a Bachelors of Arts in English Literature (Go Blueeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee!!!)
- I earned two Masters of Arts degrees from New Mexico State University in English Literature and Curriculum & Instruction: Secondary Language Arts.
- I received my Ph.D in Educational Leadership through the Educational Management and Development department at NMSU. I completed my dissertation and graduated May 11, 2013.
- I am the M.A.D.Academy Team Leader for the 2019-2020 school year.
- I aspire to develop and design my own fine arts and technology high school.

Hello Bruins...I'm so excited to be your teacher this year!

MS. BORUM (YOUR CO-TEACHER)

- Bethel High School will be the fourth school I have served since starting my teaching career.
- I earned my Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration at Saint Leo University.
- I completed my teaching course work completed at Virginia Union University
- I received my Masters of Education at Averett University.
- Teaching is a joy because it allows me the opportunity to have positive learning experiences with a diversity of people.
- During my time away from school I have a passion for reading nonfiction and fiction books, traveling around the world, working on DIY projects, and spending time with my beautiful family and awesome friends.

I am thrilled to be a member of the Bruin Family!

MS. LEE (YOUR CO-TEACHER)

- I graduated from Liberty University with my masters degree in Marriage & Family Counseling and obtained my special education endorsement from Old Dominion University.
- I have the privilege of be called mom by my 18-year daughter, who currently attends ODU. Aside from the duties of motherhood and teaching,
- I enjoy traveling, basketball, eating, and shopping.

I look forward to an amazing year with all of you!
